The Cayuga/Seneca Community Action Agency Inc. has named Janelle Ryan, Allie Poole and Rebecca Amerman recipients of the Brendan McGrath Memorial Scholarship. Each received $500. Ryan is an agency customer pursuing criminal justice studies at Cayuga Community College. Poole, a relative of an employee, is studying ultrasound technician at Cayuga Community College. Amerman, an agency employee and former customer, works at Head Start with the Southern Cayuga School District. She is studying community and human services at SUNY Empire State College. McGrath served for 21 years as a volunteer board member for the agency. He died in 2010. From left are Brendan's wife, Mary McGrath, Poole and Amerman.
