

Auburn's Taste for Community Action finalizes lineup of more than 30 local food, beverage vendors

JULY 14, 2015 5:00 PM • THE CITIZEN STAFF

The Cayuga/Seneca Community Action Agency's Taste for Community Action will turn 20 Thursday with another evening of food and music supporting the local agency's efforts against poverty, domestic violence and more.

Along with more than 30 tasting vendors (listed below) will be music by The Golden Novak Nanni Trio and jazz duo Rebecca Keefe with Carl Pickett, as well as more than 40 giveaways via silent auction, raffle or door prizes.

All told, more than 120 local businesses are supporting the event, agency marketing director Trish Ottley said. The agency is also expecting more than 500 attendees.

The event takes place from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 16, in the ballroom and courtyard of the Auburn Holiday Inn, 75 North St., Auburn.

Tickets are $30 in advance, with a "buy five, get one free" option. Tickets at the door will be $35.

Proceeds from the fundraiser — the Cayuga/Seneca Community Action Agency's biggest of the year — will help the agency fill gaps in funding, ranging from its food pantry and domestic violence relief to its housing, home repair and energy efficiency services.
